

4th Annual

NATIONAL RURAL HEALTH DAY

Creative Contest!

Mee Memorial Healthcare System presents the National Rural Health Day Art & Poetry Contest!

This year's theme is "The power of rural." All students grades K through 12 are encouraged to submit an entry, whether your talent is with words (poetry) or creating pictures (drawing).

Winners and teachers will be announced and notified on Rural Health Day, Thursday, November 16.

Deadline for entries is:
Friday, November 10, 2023

Submission: Send either a photo or PDF of your art to ewetherill@meememorial.com or through the mail to:

Mee Memorial Healthcare System
Attention: Elsbeth Wetherill
300 Canal Street King City, CA 93930

CONTEST Information & Rules

- All work must have a positive visual message and illustrate this year's theme.
- Any medium may be used (crayon, paint, pencil, marker, photographs, computer, etc).
- Poster size should not exceed 22 x 28 inches.
- No copyrighted materials may be used. Art should be original creations.
- Open to all public and private school students in grades K through 12.
- Materials must be postmarked on or before November 10.

